

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Phoenix Street Railway Company is preparing to erect on the lot opposite M. H. Sherman's residence, in Collins' addition, a brick car house.

"Babe" and John Dunn, two well-known rounders, occupy their customary places in the city prison, in default of $10 fine, imposed on each yesterday by Recorder Schwartz.

The Board of Equalization has reached on the assessment roll the letter S. Work will be completed in a few days upon the roll, when the board will sit to listen to complaints. The clerk is now sending out notices to those property owners whose assessment has been raised by the Board.

Charles Coon and a strong force of plumbers are now at work repairing the roof of the Insane Asylum, under the supervision of Architect McGinnis. The cornice and eave troughs of the building are also to receive attention. The alterations have caused a search to be made for the original plans of the building, but they are not to be found.

Clerk Sweeney made another try yesterday at selling the delinquent property on the tax roll of district No. 1. He got past the letter "C" with no buyers and knocked the lot down to the Territory. The delinquent taxes foot up over $4,300, of which amount over $300 are set against the Southern Pacific and Maricopa and Phoenix railroads, who are contesting in the courts payment of the tax.

Lem Quee, the Washington street dealer in Chinese goods, is about to make a visit to China, but desires to make sure of return to this country. He accordingly has had Probate Judge Baxter draw up the necessary papers, showing him to be a merchant worth at least $1,500. To the document is added his portrait, to ward against the possibility of any other Chinaman using the passport to obtain entrance into the United States.
